GO PARTNERS ATTENDS ICJR CONFERENCE 2008

Orlando, Florida – December 13, 2008- The inaugural ICJR Educational Conference was composed of highly interactive sessions covering the compelling and current clinical topics in joint replacement. The conference was developed and chaired by Norman Scott, MD. Concurrently, Dr. Scott stood as the President and CEO of ICRJ as well as is the founding director of Insall, Scott, Kelly Orthopaedic Institute in New York City, NY.

Dr. Scott developed the curriculum to present the latest in case-based learning, in-depth research, and effective approaches to joint disease. This year's topics focused on hip and knee joint reconstruction and patient's diagnoses, treatment, and management.

GO Partners attended the conference held at the Rosen Shingle Creek Resort in Orlando, FL. Meredith Giambattista and Ashley Dickens represented GO Partners for the event. The ladies were invited to attend a 'Get to Know the Faculty' mixer, and enjoyed the company of many current clients and hopefully future clients.

The event was a 'huge success' per Chris Prifte, Pri-Med. The date and location for the 2009 conference is yet to be determined, but you can guarantee GO Partners will be in attendance.
